

Lucian Kim
luciankim.com
info@luciankim.com

Work Experience

- National Public Radio
Moscow Bureau Chief, 2016 to present
Leading NPR's coverage of Russia, Ukraine and U.S. role in the region.
- Reuters; Slate; VICE News; BuzzFeed; Newsweek; nytimes.com
Berlin-based Contributor, 2011 to 2016
Reported and commented on Ukraine, Russia, Germany, EU.
- Bloomberg News, Moscow Bureau
Putin Pool Reporter, 2009-2010; Gazprom Reporter, 2006-2008
Reported on Russian politics and energy. Covered Russia-Georgia War.
- The Moscow Times
Business Editor, 2005; Dep. Business Editor, 2003-2004; Columnist, 2004
Ran desk of 10 reporters, assigned and edited stories under daily deadline.
- The Christian Science Monitor; U.S. News & World Report; Boston Globe
Berlin Correspondent, covering Germany and Eastern Europe, 1996-2002
Special assignments in Kosovo, Central Asia, Afghanistan, North Korea.

Education

- Diplomatic Academy of Russian Foreign Ministry
Certificate in Russian language, Professional Level
Moscow
April 2010
- Central European University
M.A., Nationalism Studies
Budapest
June 2003
- University of California at Berkeley
Graduate School of Journalism Masters Program
Berkeley, CA
1995-96
- Clark University
B.A., Geography and Foreign Languages
Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude
Worcester, MA
May 1992

Languages

German: native; Russian, French: fluent; Czech, Serbo-Croatian, Italian, Spanish: good.

Honors and Awards

- Two-time Alternate for CFR Murrow Fellowship
2011, 2016
- Shortlist for German Marshall Fund Weitz Journalism Prize
2002
- Fulbright Fellowship for Young Journalists in Germany
1996
- Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowship in Russian 1995